Witzenmann GmbH invests in Amnis Pura S.A.

On November 3, 2023, Witzenmann GmbH from Pforzheim acquired a stake in the Portuguese hydrogen purification expert Amnis Pura S.A., based in Vila Nova de Gaia near Porto.

This strategic investment will enable Witzenmann to further strengthen its expertise in the promising innovation field of hydrogen technology.

Dr. Andreas Kämpfe, CEO of the Witzenmann Group, explains: "With this investment, we are broadening our expertise in hydrogen technology and participating in this important future field."

Paulo Ribeirinha, founder and Managing Director of Amnis Pura, is convinced of the new partnership: "With an industrial investor, we are strengthening our market presence and jointly investing in business development."

The Witzenmann Group is the world's leading expert in the safe and efficient transmission of media and energy for mobility and industry.

Amnis Pura S.A. was founded in 2018 as a spin-off of the University of Porto, with a focus on the development and commercialization of hydrogen technologies.
